The ASU Visual Arts Department to Display Exhibit at Montgomery Regional Airport

(Montgomery, AL) – The Montgomery Airport Authority, in collaboration with Alabama State University's Department of Visual Arts, is inviting the public out to a Black History Month celebration Art Exhibit at Montgomery Regional Airport.

"The ASU Department of Visual Arts exhibition will feature works from ASU's art faculty along with local artists, showcasing a sample of their talent," said Professor Nathaniel Allen, Chairperson of ASU's Art Department. The Airport Exhibition was initiated in 2019, by former Dean of the ASU College of Visual & Performing Arts, Dr. Tommie 'Tonea' Stewart, and the nonprofit group, "Friends of the Theatre." The exhibition was cancelled in 2021, due to the uncertainty of COVID-19.

"We are delighted to partner with Alabama State University during such a very important time of the year, as we honor the past and present contributions of African-Americans in our nation's history," said MGM's Executive Director, Wade A. Davis.

This phenomenal collection of diverse pieces by local artists, who embody the spirit of Civil Rights Pioneers, will be on display in the MGM lobby now through March 8, 2022. The exhibition is free and open to the public.

Montgomery Regional Airport offers non-stop flights to Atlanta, Georgia (ATL); Charlotte, North Carolina (CLT); Dallas, Texas (DFW); and Washington, D.C. (DCA). MGM currently serves the region with daily flights by American and Delta Airlines. For more information on the airport, visit flymgm.com.

Oversight of the Montgomery Airport Authority is provided through the hard work and dedicated efforts of the Authority's Board of Directors including: Chairman Robert H. Gould; Vice Chair Tammy L. Knight-Fleming; Secretary/Treasurer Barrie H. Harmon, III; Thomas L. Bass; Joe S. Greene; E. Conwell Hooper; Jerry C. Kyser; Sandra P. Nickel; and Deborah M. Nickson; along with Montgomery Regional Airport's Executive Director, Wade A. Davis, C.M. The mission of the Montgomery Regional Airport (MGM) is to serve as a leading transportation hub gateway to the residents of the Alabama River Region and to the world by providing the best air airport experience to both our internal and external stakeholders.
