Condolences on the Death of Courtney Edwards

The Montgomery Airport Authority (MGM), its Board of Directors and employees express their deepest condolences to the family of Courtney Edwards on the occasion of her funeral today. Ms. Edwards died in an accident on December 31, 2022, during her service as a ground handling agent for Piedmont Airlines.

“This is a tragedy that strikes everyone very deeply,” said MGM Executive Director Wade Davis. “Montgomery Regional Airport is a tight knit community and if a member of that community is lost, we all share the grief. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.”
